Dear Parents,

I am writing to tell you about an exciting new online educational platform called Pobble that we are setting up. The project, linked with Devon County Council, enables teachers to access a huge range of excellent resources to support children's writing development. Children's writing will also be uploaded to Pobble as part of our moderation process to support judgements on writing assessment.

An additional exciting feature of this platform is that we are able to 'publish' your child's writing, with your permission of course. This means that it can be viewed by other children and teachers as it forms a part of the writing catalogue of examples. Pobble is an international platform so work could be viewed across the world – what a great incentive to write and a fantastic way to celebrate their writing!

Your child's first name and age would be the only thing that viewers could see, together with the title of their work. We are really excited about this programme as we can type directly into the system or upload photos of work. It also means that children can see examples of other's writing as they create their own.

We only need permission from you if you wish your child to have the unique opportunity of publishing their work as assessment and moderation are a national requirement. If you do not wish your child's work to be published, it will only be available to The Valley Partnership and Local Authority as part of our literacy work and moderation.

If you want to know more then please visit the Pobble website at: <https://my.pobble.com/>.

Please copy the text below and send it in and email to your child's school: admin@webbers.devon.sch.uk or admin@burlescombe.devon.sch.uk

I, (Parent/Carer Name) give consent YES/ NO* for my child, (Child Name)'s work to be published on the Pobble Platform. *(Please delete as applicable)

Yours sincerely,

Mrs D. Eveleigh, Mr R. Roffey and Mrs J. Whitlock
